

RideKC NEXT

What should transit be trying to do?

The Kansas City Area Transportation Authority (KCATA) has initiated one of the largest system redesigns in agency history – RideKC Next. The RideKC Next project is a review and redesign of transit service focused on Kansas City, Mo. (KCMO). The goal is to make sure updates to the transit network reflects the needs, priorities and values of the people in KCMO communities. RideKC Next has three phases:

PHASE ONE

- Gather community feedback with a survey and outreach
- Review existing transit service

PHASE TWO

- Share a draft plan
- Gather additional community feedback

PHASE THREE

- Review and approve a plan by the KCATA Board of Commissioners
- Implement the plan in 2020

Take the Survey

What are your transit needs and priorities?

What should public transit be trying to do in KCMO? We want everyone's opinion about the RideKC network.

Take the survey at <http://RideKCNext.org>.

Request a paper copy by email at planning@kcata.org or by phone at 816.346.0300.

The survey is open until July 31, 2019 and takes less than 10 minutes to complete!
